The EURALEX Newsletter

Up to four pages of the IJL will be used from now on for this Newsletter which is intended to include not only official announcements but also news of our members, their publications, career moves and (it is hoped) their opinions. Please try to support this by sending Newsletter Contributions to the Secretary at the above address.

News of EURALEX Members

At the end of 1990, Wolfgang Kaul, M.A., left Ernst Klett Verlag in Stuttgart to take up the post as editorial director with Langenscheidt in Munich.

August 1990 EURALEX Secretary Ole Norling-Christensen, M.Sc., was appointed a member of the Danish government's Research Council for the Humanities.

AUSTRALEX

The inaugural meeting of AUSTRALEX: The Australasian Association for Lexicography, was held at Macquarie University on 26 September 1990. Office bearers are Arthur Delbridge (President), Andrew Pawley (Vice-President), Bill Ramson (Secretary), David Nash (Treasurer), David Blair, Tamsin Donaldson, and Peter Austin. A report of the meeting and a list of members and their interests will be in the first issue of the Australex newsletter. Subscriptions of $10 are welcome from anyone with an interest in any aspects of lexicography, and may be sent to the Secretary at the Australian National Dictionary Centre, ANU, GPO Box 4, Canberra ACT 2601.

FIT: International Federation of Translators

At its XII World Congress in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jean-François Joly, of Montréal, Canada, was elected president of FIT. The Congress admitted as new regular members eight translators' associations from Australia, China, Czechoslovakia, Iraq, Ireland, Norway, Spain (The Basque Association of Translators), and the USSR. The next World Congress is scheduled for 1993, Brighton, UK.
